Renewal for Operation [REDACTED]

25X1A

25X1A 1. Identification. This Project provides a continuing possibility for certain monitoring of the activities and provides for the Agency utilization of the peculiar knowledge of [REDACTED]

25X1A 2. Objective. The objective is the furtherance of previous cooperation of [REDACTED] with this Agency, to provide [REDACTED] with a reasonable living standard and to fully utilize the unique capabilities and previous experiences of [REDACTED]

25X1A 3. Background. The Office of Security has been primarily responsible for [REDACTED] since late 1967. As previously reported, the resettlement case of [REDACTED] has progressed through various stages with [REDACTED] currently being married, residing in his own house and expecting to obtain his United States citizenship in early 1974.

25X1A [REDACTED] is currently under contract until 28 February 1974 at which time it is expected the contract will be renewed for a one or two-year period with a reasonable adjustment for the rise in cost of living. Provisions are contained in the current contract for cancellation in the event of non-performance and to provide assistance to [REDACTED] in the event his full-time services are no longer utilized by this Agency.

25X1A [REDACTED] is fully responsible for his own personal living expenses which include monthly payments on his residence, cost of utilities and other personal expenditures. It is apparent that Operation [REDACTED] will continue for an indefinite period because of the unique circumstances involved in the particular case.
